

► PATHWAY 3

INITIAL REGISTRATION APPLICATION FORM

OFFSHORE ARCHITECTS WITH NEW ZEALAND EXPERIENCE

THIS COVER PAGE CONTAINS INFORMATION FOR THE APPLICANT, PLEASE READ BEFORE COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FORM

This application form is for architects from overseas who:

- Have a five year tertiary architectural qualification; and
- Hold or have previously held a full registration/license with an overseas jurisdiction; and
 - A full registration or license means that you hold or previously held registration equivalent to that of a NZ Registered Architect and you were authorised to practise without restrictions or limitations.
- Have seven years' relevant professional postgraduate experience; and
- Have 12 months relevant professional experience in New Zealand in the last three years; and
- Live in New Zealand; and
- Are proficient in English.

Pre-application advice:

Applications close at 5.00pm on the intake close off date stated on the NZRAB's website.

Late applications will not be accepted.

The application form and supporting documents can be sent prior to the intake close off date. Payment must be made at the same time the application is sent.

Should an application, including its supporting documents, not be completed in full, and/or full payment not be received, processing may be held up or the application may not be accepted.

A Pathway 3 application requires:

- the form completed in full
- the required attachments (certified where necessary)
- the payment of the fee of NZ$1,750.00

Instruction on how to use this form:

Ensure you are using the latest version of this application form from the Board's website.

Download and save this form to your computer and then enter the details.

All questions must be answered. Enter N/A if this is appropriate.

Some boxes have a maximum number of characters and you may have to edit your text to fit. Do not enter text outside of the box space provided.

Read the small printed guidance notes in each section where included.

The application form must be filled out in full and the required attachments (certified where necessary) provided.

Note: Documentation requiring certification must be authorised by the same person witnessing your declaration on this form.

All documentation:

Include all documents in their original orientation to enable them to be read without changing the orientation of the view.

Electronically bookmark the first page of your application form and the first page only of each section of your attachments. Use the title of the section as referred in the application form.

Any documents not in the English language must be translated by an authorised translator into English. All documents must also be provided in their original language and the English translation.

All documents requiring certification must be certified on every page by the same authorised witness who signs your statutory declaration on this application form.

Remove this cover page prior to emailing your application form and required attachments. All other pages of the form must be sent to NZRAB.

Email your application as one A4, single-sided, colour, PDF saved in Adobe Pro to: registration@nznab.org.nz.

Next steps:

On receipt of the application document and the fee, NZRAB will check that everything is correct.

Communications with you will be by email. Your replies must be to the NZRAB office only.

You will be advised of when your interview will take place. Prior to the interview, the Assessors may ask for further information from you.

During your interview you will be required to demonstrate that you have sufficient knowledge and experience of architectural practices and procedures to allow you to practice safely in New Zealand.

Afterwards:

At the conclusion of the interview you will be sent an email explaining what happens afterwards.

Your Assessors will make a recommendation to the Board; and the Board will consider the Assessors recommendation at its next meeting. You will be advised of the outcome in writing following the Board meeting. Most importantly, afterwards please don't contact your Assessors directly for any reason.

► PROJECT PORTFOLIO Refers: NZRAB Initial Registration Policy

Provide a portfolio of architectural projects that you have worked on either in New Zealand or overseas. At least one project must be of work in New Zealand.

The Project Portfolio must contain the following information about four to six Complex Architectural Projects, as defined below (at least two projects must be built work only), with a maximum of two pages only per project.

1. Project Name
2. Location
3. Building Type
4. Cost
5. Job Title with explanation of role on project team
6. Project date of completion
7. Project Description; briefly describing the project (include photographs/drawings) and identifying the architect's role and responsibilities across the stages of the project (maximum 500 words).

Complex Architectural Project Definition: Typically a project of medium scale or larger that requires the skill and knowledge to deliver the resolution and integration of complicated aspects including but not limited to siting, planning, structure, services, materials, composition and configuration. A complex project is demanding in its ordering and organisation of multiple occupancy and/or special purpose user requirements and requires the integration of cultural, social, environmental and technical issues.

► CURRICULUM VITAE Refers: Registered Architects Rules 2006, Rule 9(b)

The CV should be arranged by the name of the architectural practice (most recent employer first), period employed there including month and year started and finished, your position or role within the practice, name of the projects worked on, location, type of project, project value and your role in the project. Indicate approx. hours per week worked. Also identify within the CV where in your work experience you have covered the following:

- architectural design,
- building construction and materials,
- structures
- building environment and services,
- sustainability principles,
- design in an urban context,
- light timber framed construction, and
- seismic design.

► ARCHITECTURAL EXPERIENCE SINCE GRADUATION

► CODE OF MINIMUM STANDARDS OF ETHICAL CONDUCT FOR REGISTERED ARCHITECTS

(Source: Registered Architects Rules 2006, part 3, applicable from 1 January 2018)

46. Uphold the law

A registered architect must abide by the laws and professional codes of ethics and conduct in force in the countries and jurisdictions in which the architect performs professional activities.

47. Honesty and fairness

A registered architect must perform the architect's professional activities with both—

- (a) honesty; and
- (b) fairness.

48. Professional judgement

A registered architect must exercise unprejudiced and unbiased professional judgement.

49. Skill, care, and diligence

- (1) A registered architect must perform the architect's professional activities with reasonable skill, care, and diligence.
- (2) A registered architect who becomes aware that the architect's professional advice has not been followed, and considers that a failure to follow that advice may lead to significant harm, damage, or financial loss, must advise the recipient of the advice of the potential consequences.

50. Obligations to report on risk

If a registered architect has reasonable grounds to believe that an architectural matter with which the architect is professionally involved could put the safety of any person at risk, the architect must bring the matter to the attention of the appropriate person or authority.

51. Misrepresentation

A registered architect must not represent or promote the architect's capability, business, or professional services and activities in a false, fraudulent, misleading, or deceptive manner.

52. Conflicts of interest

A registered architect must—

- (a) avoid any significant conflict of interest; or
- (b) manage any significant actual or potential conflict of interest and disclose it to all relevant parties.

53. Abuse of authority

A registered architect must not abuse the architect's professional authority.

54. Malicious criticism

A registered architect must not maliciously or in bad faith criticise or attempt to discredit another registered architect or another registered architect's practice.

55. Conflicts of professional appointment

If a registered architect, acting in the architect's own capacity or representing a practice, is approached to provide professional services in relation to a project, and the architect knows that another registered architect has a current agreement for services for that project, the architect must notify the other registered architect.

56. Remuneration and inducements

A registered architect, in respect of the architect's professional activities,—

- (a) must be remunerated solely by the fees and benefits specified in the architect's written terms of appointment or employment agreement; and
- (b) must not offer or accept any significant inducement that creates, or may create, a conflict of interest; and
- (c) must not offer any significant inducement to procure an agreement for services or gain an unfair advantage.

57. Professional reputation

A registered architect must—

- (a) build the architect's professional reputation on the merits of the architect's own performance; and
- (b) acknowledge the contributions of others to projects where those contributions are significant.

58. Competence

A registered architect must—

- (a) actively maintain the currency of the architectural knowledge and skills that are relevant to the architect's work; and
- (b) perform only architectural work for which the architect is competent, or obtain appropriate support to ensure that the work is completed to a competent standard; and
- (c) if the architect tasks others to do architectural work, ensure that their work is appropriately supervised so that the work is completed to a competent standard.

58A. Terms of appointment

(1) A registered architect must provide professional services only if—

- (a) written terms of appointment appropriate to the commission or services to be undertaken have been provided; and
- (b) the client, having agreed to the written terms of appointment, has provided an instruction to proceed.

(2) The written terms of appointment must cover—

- (a) the scope of the work; and
- (b) the allocation of responsibilities; and
- (c) any limitation of responsibilities; and
- (d) fees, or any methods for calculating fees; and
- (e) how billing will occur.

58B. Client communication

A registered architect must—

- (a) ensure that, where applicable, effective systems are in place during a commission to establish and monitor its quality, budget, cost estimates, and time line; and
- (b) advise the client in a timely manner of any significant issues that arise, or are identified, at any time during the commission.

58C. Confidentiality

A registered architect must observe the confidentiality of their clients' affairs and must not disclose confidential information without the prior consent of the client unless required by law to do so.

58D. Registration status of others

A registered architect who owns, manages, or controls a practice must ensure that nothing is done by the practice that creates, or may create, the impression that an unregistered person working for the practice is a registered architect.
